

SENTENCES: Passive Voice (1)

1. Setze den Aktivsatz ins Passiv!

a) Jenny writes a letter to her boy-friend.

→ _____

b) The shop does not sell books any longer.

→ _____

c) The father has told his kids an interesting good-night-story.

→ _____

d) The weather forecast has announced bad weather.

→ _____

e) I will translate the text from German into English.

→ _____

f) The police discovered the burglary.

→ _____

g) The artist paints an awesome picture.

→ _____

h) The director of the movie tells the actors what to do.

→ _____

i) The huge hurricane destroyed almost the whole island.

→ _____

j) They didn't publish the magazine any longer.

→ _____

SOLUTION

1.

a) Jenny writes a letter to her boy-friend.

→ A letter is written by Jenny to her boy-friend.

b) The shop does not sell books any longer.

→ Books are not sold any longer by the shop.

c) The father has told his kids an interesting good-night-story.

→ The kids have been told an interesting good-night-story by the father. / An interesting good-night-story has been told the children by the father.

d) The weather forecast has announced bad weather.

→ Bad weather has been announced by the weather forecast.

e) I will translate the text from German into English.

→ The text will be translated from German into English.

f) The police discovered the burglary.

→ The burglary was discovered by the police.

g) The artist paints an awesome picture.

→ An awesome picture is painted by the artist.

h) The director of the movie tells the actors what to do.

→ The actors are told what to do.

i) The huge hurricane destroyed almost the whole island.

→ Almost the whole island was destroyed by the huge hurricane.

j) They didn't publish the magazine any longer.

→ The magazine was not published any longer.